

A Software Developer that loves UNIX and creating tools.

[About]

Hi I'm Guilherme Rosado, and I'm from Portugal, an avid software developer that spends often a lot of time in front of a laptop because coding has become an addiction. If I'm tired or bored somehow I'll be developing some kind of tool or program, which, interestingly, gives me energy.

Besides liking software, I'm also a vocalist of a neo-soul band.
